Reservations

Just a reminder that we are not taking any room reservations at this time. This includes guest rooms and patio suites. Also, reservations currently scheduled in May could be cancelled if the stay at home order is extended. We will know more toward the end of the month. You and/or your guest will be notified if reservations are cancelled.

How are YOU Passing the Time?

The ACORN editorial staff is busy collecting anecdotes about how residents are getting through the social distancing and quarantine. In particular, they are interested in what constructive things you have found to do, as well as what enjoyable activities you've used to pass the time.

Also, have you witnessed acts of kindness by both employees and/or other residents? You can send your responses by email to: Rosemary Coffey at rosemarycoffey@aol.com or Ruth Becker, at ruthbbfoof@gmail.com or drop a note in Rosemary's mailbox (#113) or Ruth's mailbox (#340). Please do so by April 17.
